2. REVIEW OF OPERATIONS

The Company has made Profits of Rs. 44,606 during the financial year. The shares of your Company are listed at BSE Limited. The Chemical industry as such is not looking good. The scope for development has come down drastically. The Company has sold off all fixed assets during the year. However, it does not affect its status as a going concern as the Company continues to look for various other business opportunities. The Company is in the process of shifting the Registered Office of the Company from the State of Tamil Nadu to the State of Maharashtra.

3. DIVIDEND

During the year under review, the Directors do not recommend any dividend

4. FIXED DEPOSIT

During the year under review, the Company has not invited or accepted any Deposits from the public.

5. PARTICULARS OF EMPLOYEES

There were no employees during the whole or part of the year who were in receipt of remuneration in excess of limits as set out in terms of the provisions of section 217(2A) of the Companies Act, 1956, read with the Companies (Particulars of Employees) Rules 1975 as amended.

6. DIRECTORS

Mr. Dharmen Kantilal Joshi who retire by rotation being eligible offers themselves for re-appointment at the ensuing Annual General meeting.

The Board recommends appointment of Mr. Lalji Ramraj Yadav, Mr. Sanjeev Dhirajlal Mehta and Mr. Jayesh Patel as Independent Directors not liable to retire by rotation for 3 consecutive years for a term up to 31st March, 2017.

The Company has received requisite notices in writing from members proposing Mr. Lalji Ramraj Yadav, Mr. Sanjeev Dhirajlal Mehta and Mr. Jayesh Patel for appointment of Independent Directors in terms of the requirement of Companies Act, 2013. The Company has received declaration from all the Independent Directors of the Company confirming that they meet with criteria of Independence as prescribed under sub-section (6) of section 149 of the Companies Act, 2013 and under clause 49 of the Listing Agreements with the Stock Exchanges.

7. AUDITORS AND THEIR REPORT:

The Board recommends M/s. Ashvin Thumar & CO. Chartered Accountants, as statutory auditors of the Company for the year 2014 -15, who have also confirmed their appointment shall be within the limits prescribed under Section 141 of the Companies Act, 2013, if appointed.

Necessary Resolutions for their appointment has been proposed for the consideration of the Members of the Company.

Since notes to account are self explanatory, no further explanation is given by the Board as such.

8. CONSERVATION OF ENERGY:

Since the Company is not a manufacturing unit provisions of Section 217 (1)(e) of the Companies Act, 1956, read with the Companies (Disclosure of Particulars in the Report of Board of Directors) Rules, 1988 regarding conservation of energy, technology absorption is not applicable.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT:

Management's Discussion and Analysis report for the year under review, as stipulated under Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement with the Stock Exchanges in India is presented below.

Industry structure and Development:

The Chemical industry as such is not looking good. The scope for development has come down drastically. The Company has sold off all fixed assets during the year. However, it does not affect its status as a going concern as the Company continues to look for various other opportunities.

Opportunities and Threats:

The Company has decided to close down the manufacturing activity and concentrate on other feasible opportunities available in the market by exploring the possibilities which would aid profit making thereby yielding good potentials for future growth.

Segment-wise or Product wise performance:

The Company has not been able to strike a balance between demand and supply. The Company is looking to diversify into various other opportunities.

Business outlook:

The Company is considering a change in the existing management to aid in exploring the opportunities.

Risk and Concern:

Since the Company is into exploring the available opportunities, it is attributed to all the risks and concerns attached with such activities the Company intends to carry. Well-managed efforts will help to ensure that the business activities are constructively formulated, transmitted and received, and that they correspond to actions perceived to be meaningful and justified.

Internal Control systems and their adequacy:

The Company has proper and adequate internal control system commensurate with the size of the Company and nature of its business operations with regards to purchases of inventory, fixed assets and sale of goods and services. Efforts for continued improvement of internal control system are being consistently made in this regard.

Material developments in Human Resources / Industrial Relations front, including number of people employed:

The Company values and appreciates the dedication and drive with which its employees have contributed towards improved performance during the year under review. The relations with workers and staff are cordial during the year under review. All issues pertaining to staff matters are resolved in harmonious and cordial manner.

Cautionary Statement

Statements in the Management Discussion and Analysis describing the Company's objectives, projections, estimates and expectations may be 'forward looking statements' within the meaning of applicable securities laws and regulations. Actual results could differ materially from those expressed or implied. Important factors that could make a difference to the Company's operations include economic conditions affecting demand/supply and price conditions in the domestic and overseas markets in which the Company operates changes in the Government regulations, tax laws, and other statutes and other incidental factors.

THE MEMBERS OF FISCHER CHEMIC LIMITED

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of FISCHER CHEMIC LIMITED (“the Company”), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2014, and the Statement of Profit and Loss and Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956 (“the Act”). This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:

- a) In the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2014;
 - b) In the case of the Profit and Loss Account, of the profit/ loss for the year ended on that date; and
 - c) In the case of the Cash Flow Statement, of the cash flows for the year ended on that date.
1. As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2003 (“the Order”) issued by the Central Government of India in terms of sub-section (4A) of section 227 of the Act, we give in the Annexure a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Order.
 2. As required by section 227(3) of the Act, we report that:
 - a) we have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit;
 - b) in our opinion proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as appears from our examination of those books;

- c) The Balance Sheet, Statement of Profit and Loss, and Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account.
- d) in our opinion, the Balance Sheet, Statement of Profit and Loss, and Cash Flow Statement comply with the Accounting Standards referred to in subsection (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956;
- e) On the basis of written representations received from the directors as on March 31, 2014, and taken on record by the Board of Directors, none of the directors is disqualified as on March 31, 2014, from being appointed as a director in terms of clause (g) of sub-section (1) of section 274 of the Companies Act, 1956.
- f) Since the Central Government has not issued any notification as to the rate at which the cess is to be paid under section 441A of the Companies Act, 1956 nor has it issued any Rules under the said section, prescribing the manner in which such cess is to be paid, no cess is due and payable by the Company.

NOTES NO: 1 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNT POLICES AND NOTES TO ACCOUNT

A.. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICES

- (a) The company follows the accrual system of accounting in accordance with the requirement of the Companies Act, 1956 and complies with the accounting standards referred to in sub-section 211 of the said Act.
- (b) The accounts are prepared on historical cost basis and on the basis of going concern. Accounting policies not specifically referred to otherwise are consistent with generally accepted accounting principles.

B. NOTES FORMING PART OF ACCOUNTS:

- 1 Under the Micro Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act ,2006, certain disclosures are required to be made relating to Micro,Small and Medium Enterprises. The company is in the process of compling relevant information from its suppliers about their coverage under the Act . Since the revelant information is not presently available, no disclosures have been made in the accounts.
- 2 Corresponding figures of the previous year have been regrouped or rearranged to make it comparable with this years's figure, wherever necessary.
- 3 Tax expense comprises deferred taxes. : Deferred income taxes reflects the impact of current year timing differences between taxable income and accounting income for the year and reversal of timing differences of earlier years. Deferred tax is measured based on the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. Deferred tax assets are recognised on carry forward of unabsorbed depreciation and tax losses only if there is virtual certainty that such deferred tax assets can be realised against future taxable profits. Unrecognised deferred tax assets of earlier years are re-assessed and recognised to the extent that it has become reasonably certain that future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.
- 4 A. Provisions :
it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are not discounted to its present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates. Contingent Liability is not recognized in the financial statements but is disclosed.
